SCHEDULING ORDER

YANDLE, District Judge:

Having reviewed the Joint Report of the Parties and finding that the parties have substantially complied with the requirements of FED. R. CIR. P. 26(f) and SDIL-LR 16.2(a), the Court hereby approves the attached Joint Report of the Parties.

The parties should note that they may, pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 29, modify discovery dates set forth in the Joint Report by written stipulation, except that they may not modify a date if such modification would impact the deadline for the completion of all discovery, the deadline for filing dispositive motions, or the date of any court appearance.

A. Discovery Procedures:

1. Depositions upon oral examination, interrogatories, requests for documents, and answers and responses thereto shall not be filed unless on order of the Court. Disclosures or discovery under FED. R. CIV. P. 26(a) are to be filed with the Court only to the extent required by the final pretrial order, other Court order, or if a dispute arises over the disclosure or discovery.

2. The Court expects the parties to Comply with the meet-and-confer requirements of FED. R. CIV. P. 37 prior to contacting the Court with discovery disputes or filing motions.
3. All discovery disputes that cannot be informally resolved shall be brought to the Court's attention through written motion. The Motion shall be no longer than 10 pages and shall state "DISPUTED" in the title. Responses shall be filed within 7 days and shall be no longer than 10 pages. No reply briefs shall be filed. Only material directly related to the motion shall be attached to the motion (i.e. if the only dispute is about Interrogatory 15, only that interrogatory and answer (and those related) shall be attached to any motion or response). Disputed discovery motions will be referred to the Magistrate Judge initially assigned to the case for disposition.
4. Discovery disputes during depositions or those requiring prompt resolution shall be presented to the Magistrate Judge initially assigned to the case in accordance with his/her standard procedures.

B. Pretrial and Trial Deadlines:

1. As initially set by the Court, this case is set for a Final Pretrial Conference on April 17, 2025 at 9:30 a.m and Jury trial on April 28, 2025 at 9:00 a.m. in the Federal Courthouse, Benton, Illinois.
2. All "Daubert" motions (seeking to exclude expert testimony/evidence) filed pursuant to Fed.R.Evid 702 and/or 703 must be filed by the dispositive motion deadline. Counsel is advised that Daubert motions not filed in accord with this deadline will be denied as untimely filed.

3. Motions in limine must be filed no later than 21 calendar days before the final pretrial conference. Responses to motions in limine must be filed no later than 14 calendar days before the final pretrial conference.
4. Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(3) pretrial disclosures are due at least 30 days before the first day of trial. Objections are due 14 days after the disclosures are made.
5. The signed, joint proposed Final Pretrial Order shall be submitted no later than 3 business days prior to the Final Pretrial Conference.

The parties are referred to the Court's Case Management Procedures located on the Court's website for further instructions.

The parties are reminded that the Magistrate Judge can preside over all proceedings in this action, including trial and the entry of judgment, should the parties wish to consent. SDIL-L.R. 72.2(b)(3); 28 U.S.C. § 636(c). However, consents cannot be tendered once a motion for summary judgment has been filed or the deadline has elapsed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
